linda stone s analysis of the anti jewish polemic present in three closely linked twelfth century psalms glosses brings a new source to the study of medieval christian jewish relations she reveals how its presence within the parva media and magna glosses compiled respectively by anselm of laon gilbert of poitiers and peter lombard illuminates the various societal challenges facing the twelfth century church she shows that rather than a twelfth century phenomenon using such anti jewish terminology in christian psalms exegesis was a long standing reflection of christianity s ambivalence towards judaism moreover demonstrating how her analysis of anti jewish terminology unravelled the psalm glosses textual relationships she suggests that analysis of its presence in other glossed books of the bible could offer a further resource for uncovering their complexities in the history of the greek translation of the bible there are two recensions that play a very important role the first is the hexaplaric recension of origen in this work origen displayed the different versions of the biblical text and aimed at bringing the greek text as it had been submitted so far closer to the then current hebrew text his intervention in the greek text has opened the gates to a flood of approximations of the greek text to the hebrew dixit anneli aejmelaesus indeed one can find hexaplaric readings in many manuscripts and even in texts manuscripts and versions that have never been labeled like that filtering out what are hexaplaric readings is of utmost importance to the reconstruction of the old greek text which may then point to another hebrew text a similar enterprise was undertaken by lucian and his work too needs to be reconstructed and traced in order to establish the old greek text the current volume deals with the books of 1 2 sam 1 2 kings as well as joshua and esther
